

EMERGENCY TRANSFER PLAN (HUD PROPERTIES ONLY)

Emergency Transfers

MHMG Housing (“Landlord”) as the managing agent for the owner of the property (“Owner”) is concerned about the safety of its residents, and such concern extends to residents who are victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

In accordance with the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA), Landlord allows residents who are victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking to request an emergency transfer from the resident’s current unit to another unit. The ability to request a transfer is available regardless of sex, gender identity, or sexual orientation. The ability of Landlord to honor such request for residents currently receiving assistance, however, may depend upon a preliminary determination that the resident is or has been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, and on whether Landlord has another dwelling unit that is available and is safe to offer the resident for temporary or more permanent occupancy.

This plan identifies the individuals who are eligible for an emergency transfer, the documentation needed to request an emergency transfer, confidentiality protections, how an emergency transfer may occur, and guidance to residents on safety and security. This plan is based on a model emergency transfer plan published by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), the Federal agency that oversees Landlord’s subsidy programs to ensure they are in compliance with VAWA.

Eligibility for Emergency Transfers

A resident who is a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, as provided in HUD’s regulations at 24 CFR part 5, subpart L is eligible for an emergency transfer, if:

1. The resident reasonably believes that there is a threat of imminent harm from further violence if the resident remains within the same unit; or
2. If the resident is a victim of sexual assault, the resident may also be eligible to transfer if the sexual assault occurred on the premises within the 90-calendar-day period preceding a request for an emergency transfer.

A resident requesting an emergency transfer must expressly request the transfer in accordance with the procedures described in this plan.

Residents who are not in good standing may still request an emergency transfer if they meet the eligibility requirements in this section.

Emergency Transfer Request Documentation

To request an emergency transfer, the resident shall notify Landlord and submit a written request for a transfer to the Management Office or Landlord’s 504 Coordinator as well as documentation of the occurrence of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking if Resident has not previously provided such documentation of the occurrence.

Landlord will provide reasonable accommodations to this policy for individuals with disabilities.

The resident's written request for an emergency transfer should include either:

1. A statement expressing that the resident reasonably believes that there is a threat of imminent harm from further violence if the resident were to remain in the same dwelling unit assisted under Landlord's program; or
2. A statement that the resident was a sexual assault victim and that the sexual assault occurred on the premises during the 90-calendar-day period preceding the resident's request for an emergency transfer.

For the convenience of residents, Landlord has developed a form residents may use to request a transfer.

Acceptable documentation of the occurrence of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking must be provided if resident has not previously provided such documentation. Acceptable documentation includes any one of the following forms of verification:

1. A complete HUD-approved certification Form 5382;
2. A document:
 - a. Signed by the resident and an employee, agent, or volunteer of a victim service provider, an attorney, or medical professional, or a mental health professional (collectively, "professional") from whom the victim has sought assistance relating to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, or the effects of abuse;
 - b. That specifies, under penalty of perjury, that the professional believes in the occurrence of the incident of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking that is the ground for protection and remedies under this subpart, and that the incident meets the applicable definition of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking under 24 C.F.R. § 5.2003;
3. A record of a Federal, State, tribal, territorial or local law enforcement agency, court, or administrative agency; or
4. At the discretion of Landlord, a statement or other evidence provided by the resident.

If Landlord receives conflicting evidence that an incident of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking has been committed (such as certification forms from two or more members of a household each claiming to be a victim and naming one or more of the other petitioning household members as the abuser or perpetrator), Landlord has the right to request that you provide third-party documentation within thirty (30) calendar days in order to resolve the conflict. If you fail or refuse to provide third-party documentation where there is conflicting evidence, Landlord does not have to provide you with the protections contained in this notice.

Confidentiality

Landlord will keep confidential any information that the resident submits in requesting an emergency transfer, and information about the emergency transfer, unless the resident gives Landlord written permission to release the information on a time limited basis, or disclosure of the information is required by law or required for use in an eviction proceeding or hearing regarding termination of assistance from the covered program. This includes keeping confidential the new location of the dwelling unit of the resident, if one is provided, from the person(s) that committed an act(s) of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking against the resident. See the Notice of Occupancy Rights under the Violence Against Women Act For All Residents for more information about Landlord's responsibility to maintain the confidentiality of information related to incidents of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

Internal Emergency Transfer Timing and Availability

Internal emergency transfers refer to an emergency relocation of a resident to another unit where the resident would not be categorized as a new applicant. The resident may reside in the new unit without having to undergo an application process. Internal emergency transfers generally are only available within the community in which the Resident is residing.

Landlord cannot guarantee that a transfer request will be approved or how long it will take to process an internal transfer request. Landlord will, however, act as quickly as possible to move a resident who is a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking to another unit within the same community, subject to availability and safety of a unit. Transfers for these reasons will take priority over all other transfer requests including those made to accommodate a disability and to address over- or under-utilization of a unit.

If a resident reasonably believes a proposed transfer would not be safe, the resident may request a transfer to a different unit. If a unit is available, the transferred resident must agree to abide by the terms and conditions that govern occupancy in the unit to which the resident has been transferred. Landlord may be unable to transfer a resident to a particular unit if the resident has not or cannot establish eligibility for that unit.

External Emergency Transfers

External emergency transfers refer to an emergency relocation of a resident to another unit where the resident would be categorized as a new applicant. The resident must undergo an application process in order to reside in the new unit.

While MHMG may manage other communities within the area, each are (1) owned by different entities which are the actual housing providers at those communities for whom MHMG is acting as agent, (2) has its own wait lists and (3) is subject to its own regulatory agreements. As such, except in rare circumstances where the Owner of the resident's community also owns another community, Landlord must process transfers to other communities, even those managed by Landlord, as external transfers. In most circumstances, Landlord is unable to give any priority for such external transfers even if Landlord manages the property for the other Owner. As such, external transfers generally will require the transferring resident to go on any pending waitlist in the same position as any other new applicant at the other Owner's property.

Additional Assistance

If Landlord has no safe and available units for which a resident who needs an emergency transfer is eligible, Landlord will assist the resident in identifying other housing providers who may have safe and available units to which the resident could possibly move.

At residents' request, Landlord will also assist residents in contacting the local organizations offering assistance to victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking that are attached to this plan.

Safety and Security of Residents

Pending processing of the transfer and the actual transfer, if it is approved and occurs, the resident is urged to take all reasonable precautions to be safe.

Residents who are or have been victims of domestic violence are encouraged to contact the National Domestic Violence Hotline at 1-800-799-7233, or a local domestic violence shelter, for assistance in creating a safety plan. For persons with hearing impairments, that hotline can be accessed by calling 1-800-787-3224 (TTY).

Residents who have been victims of sexual assault may call the Rape, Abuse & Incest National Network's National Sexual Assault Hotline at 800-656-HOPE, or visit the online hotline at <https://ohl.rainn.org/online/>. Residents who are or have been victims of stalking seeking help may visit the National Center for Victims of Crime's Stalking Resource Center at <https://www.victimsofcrime.org/our-programs/stalking-resource-center>.
